

Surgical Case Presentation

- 54-year-old school teacher presented with abdominal distention and SOB
- She was found to have stage IV, grade 3 papillary serous adenocarcinoma of the ovary treated with TAH / BSO and optimal cytoreduction and IP Cisplatin/Taxol per GOG 172
- 16 mos after finishing treatment, CA-125 increased from 15 to 130
- CT showed a single isolated mass on left pelvic sidewall
- PS = 0; no significant co-morbidities